Eligibility & Media

California Sculpture SLAM showcases current works by established and up and coming California sculptors. The exhibition's goal is to provide a platform for a wide variety of concepts and materials. Open to artists residing in California, artwork must have been completed within the past two years and never before shown at the San Luis Obispo Museum of Art (SLOMA). An entry which differs from the submitted image or is unfit for display when delivered will be excluded. Artwork must fit through 84 x 66-inch main doorway and be no taller than 9 feet with a maximum weight of 75 pounds per component for floor or wall mounting. If the artwork requires assembly after delivery, artists are required to contact SLOMA for arrangements. Artists must supply any special display equipment, if needed.

Juror

Brigitte Micmacker is the founder and gallerist at Sculpturesite Gallery in Glen Ellen, California. For over twenty-six years, Sculpturesite Gallery has had the most extensive selection of contemporary sculpture in Northern California. It features a variety of abstract and figurative sculpture by emerging, mid-career and internationally established sculptors. To learn more about the juror go to: www.sculpturesite.com

Entry Deadline

June 23, 2017 (either hand delivered by 5 pm or postmarked by June 23, 2017)
